Australian Aid

humanity & inclusion | 3iS Solution information . innovation . impact

Factsheet 2 of 4
Access to Services

Disability is defined as interactions between personal and environmental factors. It is measured by the level of functioning of a person in various areas of daily activities (called "domains") regardless of impairments, using the Washington Group tools.

Households with at least one member with disabilities | Households without any members with disabilities

ACCESSIBILITY OF SHELTER AND LATRINE

ALL sureveyed households have shelter or house except for 4 families in Zaatari camp in Jordan waiting for the delivery of caravans

Percentage of households reporting that it is NOT easy to move around the house

Percentage of households reporting their latrine are NOT accessible

> Households with member(s) with disabilities face greater difficulties in moving around house and using latrines

SAFE WATER

Percentage of households reporting NO access to enough safe water from reliable sources

> Households with member(s) with disabilities in Lebanon are significantly less likely to access safe water than households without any members with disabilities (p<0.01)

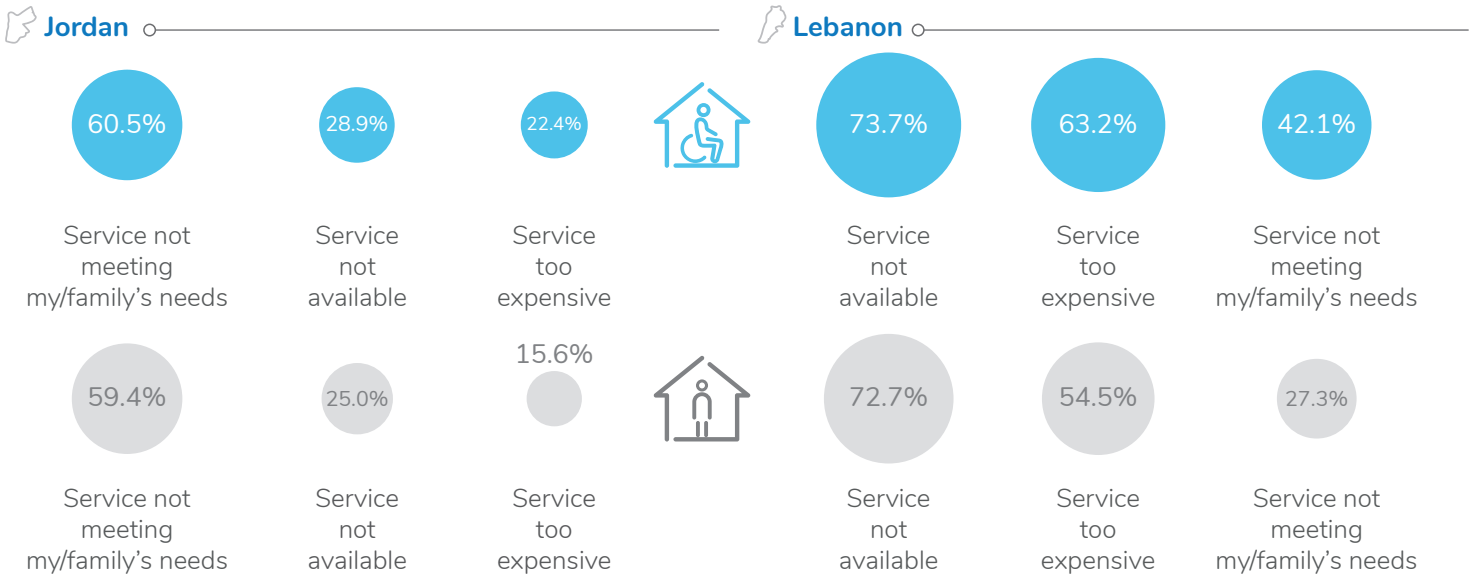
Barriers to access safe water

Identified by families who do not have access to safe water (multiple answers)



Priority solutions for increased access to safe water

HEALTH

Percentage of households reporting medical needs in the last 6 months and access to health services

Jordan

Households with at least one member with disabilities

Households without any members with disabilities

Lebanon

Households with at least one member with disabilities

Households without any members with disabilities

Medical needs / No medical needs

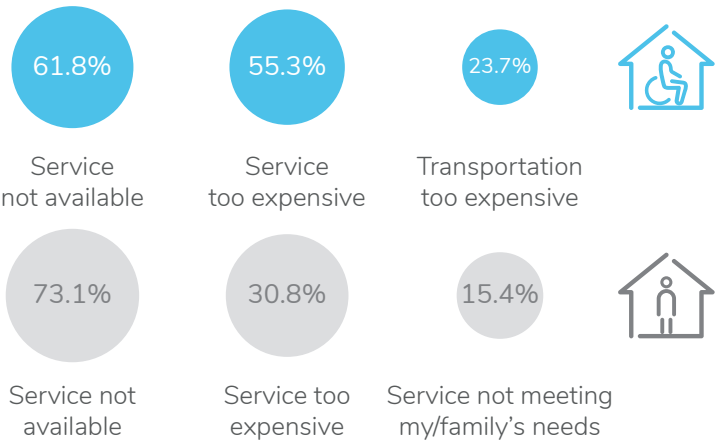
In the last 6 months

Have access / Have no access

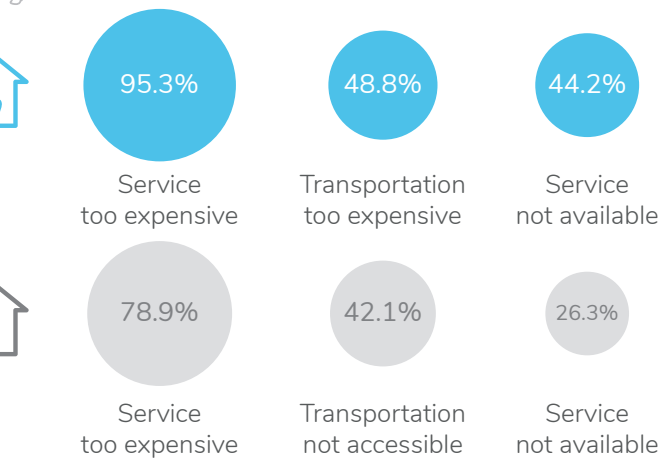
Barriers to access health services

Identified by families who do not have access to health services when needed (multiple answers)

Jordan



Lebanon



Priority solutions for increased access to health services

Jordan

Availability of services
Cost reduction for services
Supportive staff
Support to required documents

Cost reduction for services
Availability of services
Support to required documents
Supportive staff

Lebanon

Availability of services
Cost reduction for services
Cost reduction for transportation
Supportive staff

Availability of services
Cost reduction for services
Information about available services
Supportive staff

SPECIALIZED SERVICES

> Of 1,903 persons with disabilities, 25.5% in Jordan and 57.5% in Lebanon require specialized services but cannot access them.

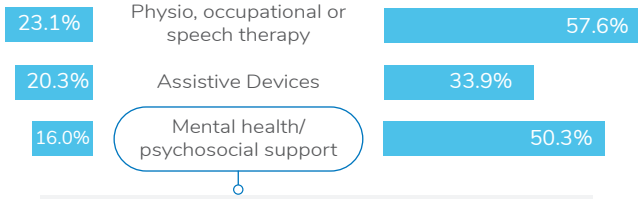
Key specialized services needed but not accessible



Strong needs among people aged 5-34 years

Barriers to access specialized services

Identified by families who do not have access to specialized services (multiple answers)

For further information

J.McGeown@hi.org

info@3is.org